

آل الدجاني

The Dajani get-together was organized by Raafat, Nadia and Ghazwa Dajani, and was held on the 11th July 2007 in the elegant upstairs terrace of the King Hussein Club in Amman.

Attendance was by a wide variety of members of the family, of varying ages and walks of life, who had the opportunity to reconnect, and also meet and be introduced to other members of the family, many of which were visiting from the USA, Saudi Arabia, and Jerusalem. It was a wonderful opportunity for Dajanis of all ages to mix and reconnect.

A light dinner was served on the terrace overlooking old Amman, and a DVD of Dajani property in Jerusalem was shown from footage taken by Lubna Dajani last month during her visit there where she was shown around by her father Adel and his cousins Issam and Riyadh. We will try to send this DVD to the Dajani website to be enjoyed by all.

T-shirts commemorating the event were sold during the evening. The website made by Mazen Dajani in the USA was introduced to everyone, www.dajani.net and we encourage you all to contribute to it if you can. Noor Dajani informed of a Dajani group on Facebook, and we encourage all to visit and participate.

The event was seen as a great success and it was decided by all that an annual ritual of Ramadan evenings as well as an Annual Dajani formal dinner in early January should be set for the family to get together on at least two occasions each year to wish each other good wishes during Ramadan, as was the tradition in Jerusalem, as well as a Happy New Year.

Nadia, Nevin, Ghazwa, Bsama and Hiba Dajani will be organizing the forthcoming Ramadan event in September and we look forward to seeing you all then!

All Dajanis, as well as relatives of Dajanis are welcome.

If you are interested in knowing more about our events, please let us know.

Please forward this link to all the Dajanis you know. We also would like all Dajanis abroad to know of our functions, so that they are in touch with the family news.
